MANDATE

The Indian Agricultural Universities Association is a Registered Society under Registration no. 3498 of 10 November, 1967. It was established in November 1967 with nine agricultural universities as its founder members, viz. PAU, Chandigarh (now Ludhiana); APAU (now ANGRAU), Hyderabad; JNKVV, Jabalpur; UPAU (now GBPUAT), Pantnagar; UAS, Bangalore; KU, Kalyani (now BCKV, Mohanpur); OAUT, Bhubaneshwar; UU (now MPUAT), Udaipur and IARI, New Delhi.

During this long span there has been phenomenal increase in the number of member universities, especially during the late 90s and onwards. At present the strength of the association membership is 47 agricultural universities, i.e. 40 state agricultural universities, 5 deemed-to-be universities (AAI, IARI, CIFE, IVRI and NDRI) and 2 central agricultural universities (CAU, Imphal and BHU). All these are regular members of the Association.

The main objective of the Association is to promote agricultural research, education and extension in the universities and states, and thereby rural development in the country. It also acts as a bureau of information to facilitate communication, co-ordination and mutual consultation among agricultural universities. The Association also acts as a liaison between member universities and government departments to facilitate communication and expedite the needed action in matters of importance.

All the universities and institutions (deemed-to-be universities) in India, which provide an integrated programme of teaching, research and extension education in agricultural sciences, are qualified to become regular members of the Association.

Vice-Chancellors of member universities or institutions constitute the Association's General Body. The General Body meets once a year to decide the agenda for the next convention and also for adoption of its audited accounts of the year and approval of budget estimates for the next financial year, besides the election of the office-bearers for the following calendar year. The Executive Committee of the Association consists of President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer and three members. The Executive Committee meets quarterly.

The office of the Association is manned by Executive Secretary, who implements the decisions of General Body and Executive Committee on behalf of the Association. A quarterly newsletter is also being published by the Association since 2000, giving important news, events and achievements by member universities for the information of all the members.

The main source of revenue of the Association is the annual subscription from member universities. The ICAR also provides a nominal grant annually.

MANAGEMENT

Executive Committee The Executive Committee of the association takes decisions in its quarterly meetings, regarding day-to-day functioning of the Association. Its directions on activities, events and policy matters are referred to the General Body for final approval and ratification. EVENTS

5th National Symposium

The 5th National Symposium of IAUA on 'Environmental pollution and its effect on agricultural production and human health' was held from 25 to 26 September 2008 at A.A.I; Allahabad.

The following recommendations emerged:

- ♦ Under strong state act the industrial effluents should be analysed critically for heavy metals toxicity before they are recommended as source of irrigation or organic matter or as nutrient supplement.
- ♦ Through state Act the use of urban and agricultural waste be promoted in crop cultivation as far as possible to save on or augment chemical fertilizers for high productivity and soil health.
- ♦ Union, State governments or AUs through Act must offer some incentives to the organizations, NGOs and the farmers who are utilizing industrial effluents or urban and agricultural waste for higher crop production.
- ♦ Peri-urban waste water should also be critically analysed and categorized for use, especially for floriculture rather than for grain crops, vegetables or horticultural crops.
- ♦ Use of fertilizers and pesticides in high - productivity areas should be advised cautiously, on analysis of toxins in AUs, and of under - ground water and soil through state Act to protect human, animal and crops health in these areas.
- ♦ Use of industrial effluents, urban and agricultural as well as peri-urban waste should be looked into as co-ordinated projects for finding solutions to generate employment opportunities and income to economize the fertilizer use in agriculture.
- ♦ Conservation of bio-diversity in plants, animals, fish and microbes should be fully recognized through Act as a means of pollution - mitigation effort.
- ♦ Invasive bio-diversity and taxa introduction should be established with systematic risk analysis before accession for their effective legal regulations are put in place.
- ♦ Central role of livestock and horticulture should be recognized for sustainability in agriculture with reference to climate change, poverty alleviation and availability of nutritive food to generate pollution free environment and revamp the fertilizers fatigued crop- production system.
- ♦ There is strict need to enforce Noise Pollution Act 2000, with public awareness and change in the attitude of the stake-holders, i.e. industries, traffic and agricultural machineries to check adverse effect of noise on the health of the crops, livestock (eggs, meat, milk production), fishes, microbes etc.
- ♦ Use of bio-fertilizer, bio-pesticides, afforestation, zero-tiltage, conservation tillage, and of sprinkler or drip irrigation should be encouraged through rewards and also training to scientists, students and farmers to check pollution. Burning of any agricultural or industrial by-product should be banned through legislation to check pollution.

- ♦ Agricultural scientists who undertake research on and off the campus are involved in teaching, research guidance and agricultural extension should be encouraged by giving extra allowance (similar to medical doctors who get no-practising allowance).
- ♦ The scientists or teachers from AUs and ICAR should be paid atleast 25% more salary than those in the traditional universities in view of their efforts and comparative work load.
- ♦ Each AU should undertake detailed study on solid- waste management in the cities around, for its effective utilization and pollution control, with funds from the concerned state government. The ICAR or State governments should award the universities that adopt the model most efficiently.
- ♦ To effectively mitigate and minimize the dangerous effects of acid - rain pollution systematic long- term measures and policies should be undertaken to analyse the rain water and its effect on soil profiles including its biota, crops in the fields as well as on animal and human health.
- ♦ A pollution - mitigation cell should be created in each AU for forewarning in its vicinity or jurisdiction, with the help of community radio. The state Government or the ICAR should finance it.

33rd Annual Convention of VCs

The 33rd IAUA VCs Annual Convention on 'Climate change and its effect on agriculture' was inaugurated on 4 December 2008 at AAU, Anand by Shri Narendra Modi, Chief Minister of Gujarat. The deliberations went on for 2 days with 7 sessions, in which 50 scientists, 27 VCs and 10 VC's representative participated from the various SAUs. The following recommendations were made during the different technical sessions.

- ♦ There should be long-term experiment on study of the effect of climate change on agriculture. Therefore, department of Agricultural Meteorology should be started in each agricultural university.
- ♦ To help the farmer, weather forecast should be developed for smaller areas for a grid of maximum 50 km.
- ♦ All SAUs should install AWS at their research stations.
- ♦ Each SAU should strengthen research in climate change and include its course in the syllabus. Anand Agricultural University should lead research on this aspect with fund provided by the ICAR.
- ♦ All the SAUs should strengthen human resource to utilize GIS and use of space products to study the effect of climate change on Agriculture.
- ♦ Climate variability and its effects on pests and diseases should be studied, as well as on animal production and reproduction, using various models.
- ♦ All the AUs should appoint a Nodal Officer to study performance of agricultural universities and arrange rowing seminar at regional level in consultation with NAARM.
- ♦ Use of satellite data in agriculture should be encouraged and GIS should be used as a tool.
- ♦ Green - house cultivation is recommended in Himalayan region to protect the crops from extreme climate.
- ♦ There is also need to evaluate and monitor the effect of climate change on prevailing disease pattern and emergence of new diseases.
- ♦ Real estimates of green - house gases should be developed in Indian context to assess the impact on human life.

- ♦ Livestock - based farming system need to be encouraged to reduce the effect of climate change and increase production per unit of land.
- ♦ Meteorological Departments of SAU and ICAR institutes need to be strengthened.
- ♦ Need to evaluate and develop appropriate technologies to counteract the effect of climate change on shelf - life of dairy products.
- ♦ Reduce the use of the fossil fuels to bring down the GHG emissions.
- ♦ Afforestation programmes should be taken with greater zeal, in order that the forests act as fresh CO₂ sinks.
- ♦ Research studies need to be promoted regarding the area - specific impacts of climate change on human health.
- ♦ Master degree programme in Post - Harvest Technology for value - added products need to be started in agricultural universities.
- ♦ The nutritive vegetarian and non-vegetarian food having sufficient proteins and vitamins need to be provided to the people to combat the effect of climate changes on human health and increase their immunity status.
- ♦ The effect of climate change on glacier melting and its likely effect on agricultural production needs to be under taken.
- ♦ Rainy days are going to decrease and heavy fall will increase with the change in climate.
- ♦ The rainfall intensity is likely increase at different return periods.
- ♦ Glacier recovery and growth is decreasing, resulting in decrease of total glaciers. This will affect floods in many areas.
- ♦ East coast and Gujarat is prone to the incursion of sea water and Western Ghats are prone to landslide.
- ♦ Development and management of water resources, interlinking of rivers and integrated planning are necessary.
